

Supporting Timorese CSOs & Women as Empowered Market Agents

Area Coverage

Rural Areas Ainaro, Baucau, Bobonaro Municipalities and Urban Area Dili Municipality

Sectors

Civil Society Organizations (CSO) Strengthening, Women's Social and Economic Inclusion, Agricultural Livelihood

Project Period

1 March 2021 – 28 February 2025
(48 months)

Participants

45 CSOs and approximately 48,849 Households, equal to 245,986 people

Donors

Funded by European Union
Co-funded by Austrian Development Agency and ADRA Austria

Implementing Partners

ADRA Timor-Leste & Rede Feto

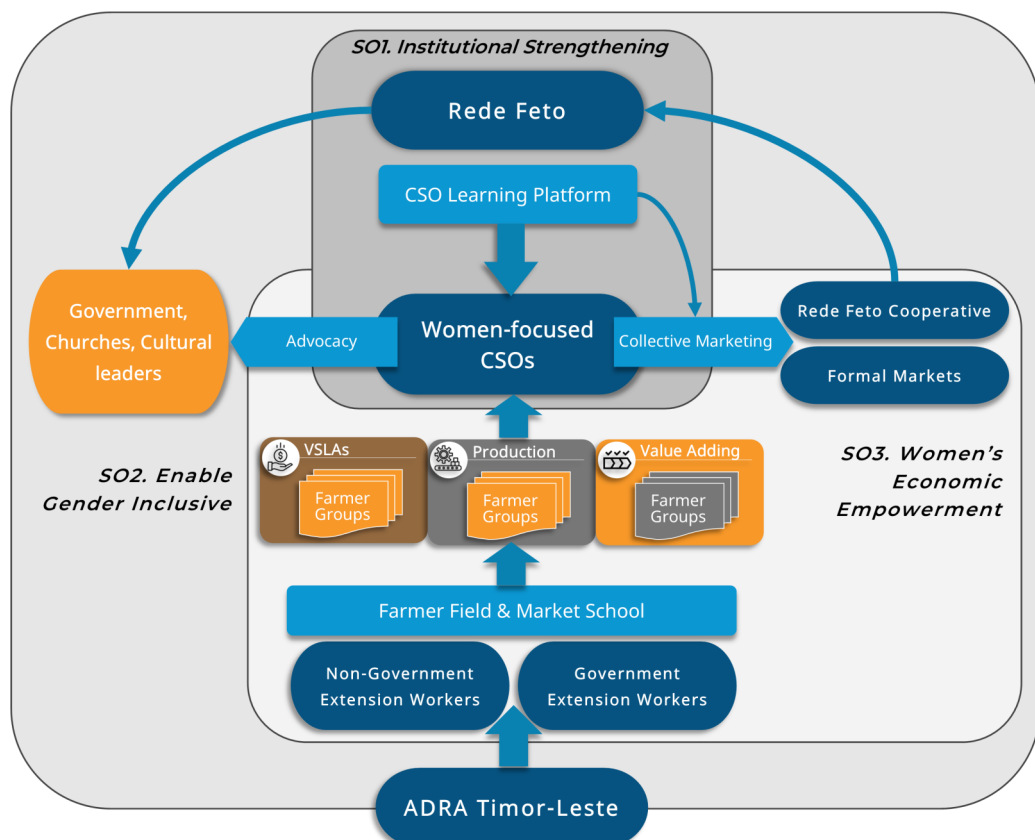

Budget

€ 888,888

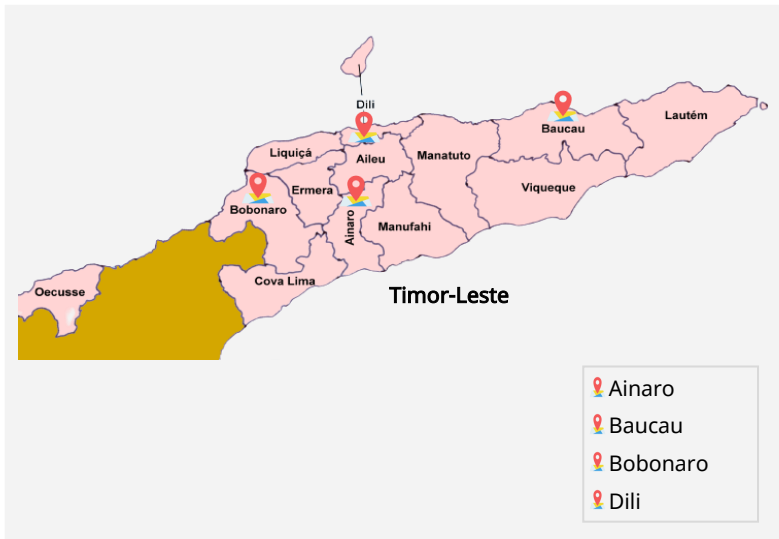

Introduction

Hakbi'it-Feto Project is a collaborative project between ADRA Austria, ADRA Timor-Leste and Rede Feto Timor-Leste with the key objective to empower women socially and economically through strengthening women-focused Civil Society Organizations (CSOs). This project is funded by the European Union and co-funded by the Austrian Development Agency and ADRA Austria.

Project Logic Diagram

Project Area

Key Approaches

- ◆ Learning Platform
- ◆ Knowledge Management
- ◆ Innovative fundraising model for CSOs
- ◆ Collective Marketing
- ◆ Value Chain Assessment and Training
- ◆ Women and children rights
- ◆ Gender inclusion and Tara Bandu of Gender Based Violence (GBV)
- ◆ Farmer Field School and Market Field School
- ◆ Climate adaptive agriculture
- ◆ Village Saving and Loan and basic numeracy class

For more information

Agueda Catarina Freitas Project Manager

+670 77595702 / +670 7734 3963

gida.freitas@adra.tl

ADRA Timor-Leste, Delta II at Travessa Hali Mesak Dili, Timor-Leste.

<https://adra.tl> <https://www.facebook.com/adratl/>

Specific Objectives

- SO1 To strengthen CSOs to operate effectively to support development and women's empowerment.
- SO2 To promote supportive relationships within families for participation in society and economic activities.
- SO3 To support women's engagement in society and the economy through participation in value chains and market systems.

Target Groups

- ◆ SO1 45 CSOs, part of a CSO network and their CSO members. Selected will be Local CSOs whose mission is to promote women's empowerment.
- ◆ SO2 46,849 actual households for gender awareness/inclusion activity, equal to 234,242 people (total members of households). Selection criteria is families living in urban (Dili Municipality) or rural areas (Ainaro, Baucau, Bobonaro Municipalities).
- ◆ SO3 216 female head of households for production, processing, trading, and saving and loan activities), representing 1,144 people (total members of households). 60 Informal groups active in production, processing, trading, and saving and loan activities, consisting of 1,784 members and non-members equal to 10,600 members of households benefitting.

If you have any complaints in regard with the programs implemented by ADRA Timor-Leste, quality of the programs, behavior of the staffs or irregularity, we kindly request you to send your complaint to us through email: complaints.officer@adra.tl or deliver directly to ADRA Timor-Leste office address. We will maintain your confidentiality during investigation.

Disclaimer

This publication has been produced with the assistance of the European Union & Austrian Development Cooperation. The contents of this publication are the sole responsibility of ADRA Timor-Leste and can in no way be taken to reflect the views of the European Union and Austrian Development Cooperation.